

I do not feel the FCC should even consider adopting a standard that serves no purpose other than securing of profit and market share of private companies in the public domain. I do not see how this supports the FCC's mission. Yet passing this measure would make the FCC inextricably complicit.

Please do not pass this regulation